

WELCOME TO THE NETWORK

The Network is designed to connect people who want to influence others towards Jesus with those who truly want to be influenced. The content and structure of these relationships are at the discretion of the participants. Here's how it works:

Step 1: Attend an Intentional Disciple Making Catalyst event. A prerequisite of any mentor, but not of a mentee, this conference offers great practical tools and insight for participating in Jesus' commission to make disciples. Event dates for the Catalyst are available with the COTRH office.

Step 2: A willing mentor fills out a profile: The information provided on this profile, along with prayer, will be our primary tool of consideration for matching a mentor with a mentee. Once a profile is returned to the office or Information Table it will be kept confidential from anyone other than COTRH Pastors, Ministry Directors and recommended mentees.

Step 3: An Interested mentee fills out a similar profile: Once we receive a profile from someone wanting to be discipled, a Pastor or Ministry Director will compare profiles and offer to the mentee two or three recommendations for a good match. The mentee will then make a choice based on those recommendations.

Step 4: The Network will contact the mentor: Once the mentee has made a selection someone from the network will contact the mentor to confirm their willingness to begin a season of discipleship. We recognize that while a mentor has a genuine interest in participating, that particular season of life may not be conducive for such a commitment.

Step 5: Let the disciple making begin: When a mentor agrees to the match the Network will make available all contact information. At this point, the mentor will contact and set up an initial meeting with the mentee. They're on their way. Again, the content and structure of these relationships are at the discretion of the participants. The goal of these relationships are simple; to influence someone towards Christlikeness. The mentor is not expected to be an expert or have all the answers, only a willingness to join and influence the mentee as they pursue Jesus.

Ongoing support from the Intentional Network: The Pastor or Ministry Director, who initially contacted the mentor and mentee about their current match, may periodically inquire about how things are progressing. Also, either mentor or mentee may contact them with any questions or concerns. They can help develop, trouble-shoot or pray about a discipleship relationship.

The following section is the heart of this profile. Check as many boxes as you feel apply to you and what you're willing to discuss with someone you're discipling. Remember, checking a box does not mean that you are claiming expertise, only that, at some point in your life, Jesus has met you in a significant way in this area. This relationship will be a good opportunity to multiply what He has taught you during those times. As you consider the categories below ask yourself if it's true that...
